

Staging is all about ...

DETACHING AND DE-PERSONALIZING

DE-CLUTTERING AND DECORATING

DESIGNING AND DRESSING

DETACHING AND DE-PERSONALIZING

- You must adopt a buyer's perspective early on by letting go and looking toward the future.
- The Gurus help pack away your treasured photos and mementos, making it easier to move forward.
- We clean out closets, pack away books, and arrange for storage-facility rental and charity pickups—whatever it takes to achieve a home attractive to home seekers.

DE-CLUTTERING AND DECORATING

- You know your home will be most memorable when it's bright, clean, and charming.
- The Gurus work with you to de-clutter and organize each room and closet.
- We manage repair people, painters, landscapers—whatever services are necessary to welcome the potential buyer.

DESIGNING AND DRESSING

- Staging is also about illusions.
- The Gurus design a mood or ambiance—inside and out.
- Dressing up a house for sale is about adding small, subtle details—lipstick, mascara, and a stunning strand of pearls. The Gurus are happy to include those final touches, when needed.

The good things about staging ...

- Compels you to clean, organize, and de-clutter early on.
- Prepares the home for a quick sale by way of clearing away shelves, closets, and cabinets—a Gurus specialty.
- Provides you with a head start on packing for the move.
- Reduces the home's market time and increases the likelihood of a sale by quickly attracting the perfect buyer.
- Helps justify the asking price.
  - If you're dealing with a seller's market, and the home is priced correctly, there's less haggling over the asking price.
  - In a market leaning toward the buyer, you need everything going in your favor to validate the asking price. Proper staging of the home positions it more favorably in the buyer's mind.
- Makes the letting-go process fun, and many people really get into and enjoy staging. This is especially true when the Gurus creating ideas and contributing to the elbow grease.

The benefits to you are clear. The house sells in less time and for more money!

The Gurus offer many valuable staging services ...

We work to highlight a home's strengths, downplay its problems, and make it appealing to the greatest possible pool of buyers. We scrutinize the house and surrounding areas from all angles.

- “How is its curb appeal?”
- “Is it welcoming?”
- “Does it have an emotional pull, impact, and pizzazz?”
- “Are rooms open and airy?”

The Gurus provide you with ideas for enhancing a home's strengths while offering solutions to minimize its challenges. Staging might involve just a little closet thinning and tidying up or a major furniture and design overhaul. Regardless, when we're done, the home stands out in a crowd.
